While we were with the Apostle of Allah (peace_be_upon_him) on a journey, a person came upon his mount and began to stare on the right and on the left. (It was at this moment) that Allah's Messenger (peace_be_upon_him) said: He who has an extra mount should give that to one who has no mount for him, and he who has surplus of provisions should give them to him who has no provisions, and he made mention of so many kinds of wealth until we were of the opinion that none of us has any right over the surplus.

Book 17, Number 4291:

Narrated Salamah ibn al-Akwa':

We set out on an expedition with Allah's Messenger (peace_be_upon_him). We faced hardship (in getting provisions) until we decided to slaughter some of our riding-animals.

Allah's Apostle (peace_be_upon_him) commanded us to pool our provisions of food. So we spread a sheet of leather and the provisions of the people were collected on it. I stretched myself to measure how much that was (the length and breadth of the sheet on which the provisions were laid). I measured it and (found) that it was (in length and breadth) of (the size) on which a goat could sit. We were fourteen hundred people. We (all) ate until we were fully satisfied and then filled our bags with provisions.

The Allah's Apostle (peace_be_upon_him) said: Is there any water for performing ablution. Then there came a man with a small bucket containing some water. He tipped it into a basin. We all fourteen hundred persons performed ablution using the water. Then eight people came after that and said: Is there any water for performing ablution? Thereupon Allah's Messenger (peace_be_upon_him) said: The ablution has already been performed.
